Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Masami et al (JP 08-167787).

Masami et al disclose a wall element for a magnetically shielded room, said wall element comprising at least one first layer which is formed of metal plate (aluminum) having a high electrical conductivity, at least two layers, a second layer and a third layer, which are formed of metal plate having a high magnetic permeability (abstract), wherein said layers are superimposed one on top of another in surface contact with each other without any separating air gaps, so that each first layer having a high electrical conductivity lies between each second and third layers having a high permeability substantially in surface contact with the second and third layers, the layers together forming a compact structure in which the product of electrical conductivity and permeability is maximized so as to minimize the penetration depth of magnetic interference (abstract).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Masami et al (JP 08-167787) in view of Trenkler et al (US 4,890,083).

The teaching of Masami et al as discussed above does not disclose the shielding room comprising walls, floor and ceiling.

Trenkler et al disclose a shielding room comprising walls floor and ceiling (Figs 9-11). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the shield room with the material of Masami et al for the purpose of forming an enclosure.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-15, 17-38 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Communication

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Hung V Ngo whose telephone number is (571) 272-1979. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Thursday 8:30-6:00.
